AGREEMENT ON CO-OPERATION BETWEEN CZECH INVEST (THE CZECH AGENCY FOR FOREIGN INVESTMENT) PRAGUE AND INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT AND INVESTMENT CENTER (IDIC) TAIPEI (AD.1995.10.04)

(民國 84 年 10 月 04 日簽訂)

The Czech Agency for Foreign Investment - CzechInvest and Industrial Development and Investment Center (IDIC), hereinafter referred to as " Contracting Parties" , recognising that the development of industries in and trade between the Czech Republic and Republic of China on Taiwan are a continuing concern of both Contracting Parties, and being aware that each Contracting Party is willing to promote more favourable conditions for greater co-operation between partners in the two respective countries, both Parties hereby agree to co-operative in the fields of technology transfer and investment between industries of the Czech Republic and the Republic of China on Taiwan based on the principles of equity , non discrimination and mutual benefit within the scope of their responsibilities in the following manner:

1. Investment and technological development between Czech and Taiwanese companies are to be promoted through the exchange of information, assistance to the potential direct investment into the Czech Republic and the Republic of China on Taiwan, establishing of joint ventures etc., by utilising the information resources of both Contracting Parties on the activities of private companies in their areas.
2. Both parties will respectively encourage and assist their firms to set up production facilities in the territory of the other party.
3. Both parties will assist and promote the visits of investment missions between the Czech Republic and the Republic of China on Taiwan, and take notice to extend co-operation and assistance recommended by the other party.
4. A framework is to be established between the Contracting Parties to discuss the most effective means by which to execute the types of co-operation outlined herein in a manner consistent with their objectives.
5. While both Contracting Parties will endeavour to promote the types of co-operation arising from this agreement for the benefit of companies in both the Czech Republic and the Republic of China on Taiwan, it is understood that this does not exclude either of the two Contracting Parties from entering into similar agreements with any other party or parties.

6. Both parties are fully aware of the fact that any decision made by residents and companies of the private sector from both territories in favour of the said facilities mentioned above is exclusively the result of a private business initiative, and both parties do not take any legal responsibility in this regard.
7. Neither Contracting Party shall have any financial obligation towards others except for the reimbursement of expenses relating to specific actions mutually agreed upon.
8. Both Contracting Parties retain the right to terminate this agreement with one month's written advance notice whenever either or both of them deem it necessary.
9. This Agreement comes into force on 4, Oct. 1995 (the signing day). It will be in effect for initial period of 2 (two) years and will be reviewed by both Contracting Parties every year. Hence it will be automatically extended on annual basis unless determined otherwise by the Contracting Parties.

This agreement is done in two copies, each of them having the same validity.
